GATHERING war news in Mexico will not be as picturesque a proceeding as it was in the Spanish-American conflict. The Mexican was correspondent already has had his status defined by the military authorities and, while it imposes on his imagination and the free-lance methods which prevailed in former wars, he has acquiesced very gracefully and has pledged his co-operation with the United States army practically as if he were a soldier.—Louisville Times.

Prof. Ben Evans is progressing nicely with his spring school at this place.

Miss Bessie Prather, of Lancaster, visited friends and relatives at this place last week.

Mr. Lewis Wylie, who has until recently been in the livery business at Nicholasville, is at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wylie.

Mrs. Lizzie Reynolds and husband, of Jessamine, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Collins, from Friday till Sunday.

PAINT LICK.

The Walnutta Methodist church has opened its Sunday-school for the summer months.

Cleone McWhorter sold her pony and phaeton to Carlos Hedrick.

Ed Griggs, of Mt. Sterling, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of I. C. Rucker.

Elder W. J. Hudspeth, who has been holding a meeting at the Christian church for the past week, closed Sunday night.

Mrs. H. L. Wallace, Rice Woods, R. N. Beasley and Miss Lucy Francis will attend the W. C. T. U. convention at Harrodsburg today.

Mrs. Mattie Duncan, secretary of the Garrard County Sunday-school Association, visited Mr. Tabor last Sunday and addressed the school. She exhibited handsome banners for the benefit and interest of the Garrard county Sunday-schools.

Billy Wilcox, one of our successful watermelon raisers, will cultivate three acres on L. C. Rucker's place, near the school building, this year. "Billy," you'll have to watch those school boys, or he'll raid your patch!

Prof. G. L. Waterbury has been elected principal of our graded school for the ensuing year. His many friends will welcome him back, after an absence of a year.

Miss Minnie Johnson held examination for the eighth grade Friday and Saturday. All who pass will get diplomas on completing the common school course, which entitles them to free tuition in high school.

Elder F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster, will preach the commencement sermon next Sunday at the Baptist church. Rev. J. W. Beagle, of Lancaster, will address the Senior Class May 23d.

Miss Allie Hendren's room will give an entertainment one night and the Seniors will present a play during commencement week.

Mumps, measles, whooping cough and scarlet fever have cut the attendance down at our school. We hope the warm weather will put a stop to different diseases so that the attendance may be good at the closing exercises of our school.

The Paint Lick boys played the Kirksville base ball team Saturday and were beaten, as usual.

Charlie Todd, who had his leg broken about two months ago, is not doing well. He is not yet able to get out much to the regret of his many friends.

UNION CITY.

Misses Fannie and Beulah Tipton and Gladys Creekmore entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Sharp last Saturday night.

A number of young folks from this community went to J. House to hear Dr. H. N. Quisenberry deliver his lecture on "My Young Man and His Girl."

Little Jephtha McKinney is the proud possessor of a Shetland pony and a new saddle. The pony was given him by Mr. Jephtha Chenault and the saddle was a present from his uncle, Wm. Glass, of Wilmore.

Mrs. E. P. Benton and Robert Ford were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Shelton last Sunday. The latter was also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jno Ford on Saturday.

Rev. W. I. Peel delivered an eloquent sermon at the Christian church here on Sunday last on "The Principles of Baptism," and some excellent points were brought out.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Noland, Jr., on the 5th inst., a son.

On May 8th the officers and teachers of the Christian Sunday-school met and adopted new plans for the increase and upbuilding of the school.

Some of the readers of the Union City items in last week's Climax probably noticed the error as to the Sunday-school offering at Flatwoods on Sunday, the 3d. It should have read the "offering was $25" instead of "offered a $25 prize." (Our mistake. Editor.)

KIRKSVILLE.

Mrs. G. W. Griggs, of Ruthion, died suddenly Wednesday evening. She is survived by her husband and three children. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. O. Young, and the remains were laid to rest at College Hill, Friday afternoon.

The death of Aunt Mary Ann Willis, aged 85 years, one of the oldest colored residents of Ruthion, died Friday afternoon. Burial Saturday morning.

Mrs. Mary Taylor Dozier is reported quite ill with mumps.

RHEUMATISM AND BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Prof. Budlong Was Quickly Relieved of Both Afflictions By Using Rheuma.

If you suffer from any form of Rheumatism, remember that RHEUMA goes to work quickly to remove the cause, not simply to relieve the distress. Many years' use has demonstrated that it goes to the seat of the disease and expels the poisonous matter through the natural channels—the kidneys, bowels, liver and skin.

"For many years I was troubled with Rheumatism, also with Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I suffered awfully. Tried many advertised remedies. After using your truly remarkable preparation, RHEUMA, I was fully cured."—Prof. J. C. Budlong, Sound View, Conn.

RHEUMA is guaranteed by B. L. Middleton, who sells it for 50c a bottle.
